A Weekend to Rest, Connect, and Grow

Come enjoy biblical teaching, meaningful small-group conversations, creative activities, worship, laughter, and unhurried time with other women as we consider what it means to live as God's workmanship.

BIBLICAL TEACHING Three sessions centered on grace, spiritual gifts, and the body of Christ.	SMALL GROUPS Thoughtful conversation after each teaching session.	CREATIVE PROJECTS Two collaborative art projects that bring the retreat theme to life.
SPIRITUAL GIFTS A guided spiritual-gifts survey and practical reflection.	WORSHIP & FUN An evening of worship, games, and roasting marshmallows around a campfire.	FREE TIME Rest, fellowship, crafts, games, explore the PA Grand Canyon, or go horseback riding.

Registration will be available on the Paramount Baptist Church website.

Friday	Breakfast, lunch, and plated dinner
Saturday	Breakfast and lunch

Rooms & Accessibility

- We need at least 14 women registered for the retreat to be held.
- There are 14 bedrooms. If more than 14 women register, some attendees will share rooms; several rooms contain more than one bed.
- Room 1 is the only first-floor bedroom. It has one queen bed, one twin bed, and an accessible bathroom.
- A chairlift is available to a set of second-floor rooms for women who cannot use stairs.

What Is Provided

- Beds will be made, and bedding and towels are provided.
- Bring your own toiletries, soap and shampoo, hair dryer, and other personal items.

Downstairs Kitchenette

- A refrigerator, freezer, microwave, toaster, coffee maker, and sink are available.
- You may bring personal snacks or use the refrigerator for medications or other needed items.

Parking & Carpooling

- There is ample parking at the retreat center.
- Carpool arrangements can be coordinated for anyone who needs transportation.

Registration & Food Needs

- Sign-up will be posted on the Paramount Baptist Church website.
- The form will include a place to list food allergies or dietary restrictions so Three Springs can consider them in meal planning.
- Please provide complete dietary information when registering; the retreat center needs advance notice.
- Please indicate on the form if you want to go horseback riding and pay the additional $35
